

I have been listening to K-Love radio for around a decade. It has brought Christian uplifting music to the local community. In our area, K-love might be the only Christian music station. (There could be one more)

If K-Love radio were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, we are to lose the only Christian station in the area. (There might be one more, not too sure)

There are a lot of other stations that broadcast numerous streams of music and programming. K-Love radio has numerous testimony of how this station has saved lives of people who are at the end of the road. There is nothing more powerful than Christian uplifting music to bring hope to those who do not have hope. I honestly believe it is in the public interest for K-Love to continue on without the threat of LPFM talking priority over them.
